Bat Two Victories Out of St. Louis Pitchers.

WADDELL GETS HIS BUMPS

"The Rub" Essays to Twirl Initial Game of Double-header, but Drops Out After the Fatal Sixth-Graham and Dineen Pitch Miserably—Despite Excellent Support.

St. Louis, May 10.—With the team behind them working like clockwork, the St. Louis Americans' pitchers put up a miserable exhibition here to-day, both games being lost to Detroit.

Waddell started the first game, but gave way to Petty in the seventh, after five runs had been scored off his delivery. Graham started the second game, but after three runs had been scored, he was succeeded by Dineen, who failed to stop Detroit's batting.

CLUBMEN ARRANGE CONTEST

Metropolitan and Century to Meet at Union Park.

Teams Have Good Players to Select From—Admission Will Be by Invitation.

A baseball game has been arranged between teams from the Metropolitan and Century Clubs, to be played at Union Park to-morrow at 4:30 o'clock.

Considerable rivalry exists between these two clubs, and society and club men are taking keen interest in the coming event.

Metropolitan has the advantage of having played several games this season, defeating both the Century and New York Stock Exchange teams. Their team will be chosen from such well-known players as Ned Mitchell, Preston Gibson, David Porter, Capt. Evans, Murray Cobb, William Merriman, Randall Hagner, J. H. de Shour, Horace Westcott, Dr. Mitchell, Fleming Newbold, and Beale Bloomer.

The Century Club has among its members a number of men who have in the past made quite a record on the diamond. They will be represented by a nine selected from among the following: Tom Hume, Ned McLean, Frank Ellis, Fred Barbour, Leonard Nicholson, Brock Smith, Halcyon Malone, Duncan Hannagan, Graham Hume, Arthur Hayden, William Meredith, Urvile Ecker, and Harry Crist.

The contest is not a charity affair, but admission will be by invitation.

INDEPENDENCE LEAGUE OFF.

Starts Its Second Season with Bright Prospects To-day.

The Independence Baseball League will start on its second season this afternoon at Second street and Rhode Island avenue northeast, the game to be called at 5:30 o'clock.

The teams in the opening contest will be the Wallace and Twining clubs. Both teams are made up of some of the best amateur ball tossers in the District, and a good game can be looked for.

Ruppert, of the Twining outfit, has placed a lot of confidence in his team, and thinks that with America, the crack Church League player, on the slab, his team can win from Manager Murray's outfit.

The Independence League this year is made up of stronger teams than those of last year, and with the present teams the Bloomingdale fans can expect to see fast games.

One of the best teams ever pulled together in the Bloomingdale section is the Advent team, which has many of last year's stars of other teams. Formed of players from the Advent Church, under the leadership of Mr. Andrew Ormsby, these boys have made rapid strides in the past month. Already this season this team has met and defeated six of the best teams in the city.

The board of managers, at a recent meeting, decided to give the Maryland A. C. the Union Station Y. M. C. A. franchise, as the latter team could not put up as strong a team on the field as the league desired.

The schedule for the week: Monday—Wallace vs. Twining. Tuesday—Grier vs. Advent. Wednesday—M. A. C. vs. Preston Office. Thursday—Wallace vs. Advent. Friday—Twining vs. M. A. C. Saturday—Grier vs. Preston Office.

Vanderbilt Wins the Prix.

Paris, May 10.—The race for the Prix la Rochette, for fillies, which was run to-day, was won by W. K. Vanderbilt's Forelight. M. Amont's Armande was second and Count St. Phall's Philomane third. The post odds were 5 to 1 against the winner, 9 to 2 against Armande, and 25 to 1 against Philomane.

Russkin City of Stuldes.

St. Petersburg, May 10.—Statistics show that 126 persons, most of whom were in very poor circumstances, committed suicide last year in St. Petersburg. The number in 1904 was only 109.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Paterson, May 10.—Irwin's Bandits kept up their winning streak, and blanked the locals to-day in a well-played game.

The visitors were exceedingly fast on the bases, and bunched their hits in a manner to make them most effective.

The Bandits also put up an errorless game in the field, while Paterson slipped up four times.

Washington used Burke, Murray, and Longstreet in the box, and the locals did not seem to be able to fathom the curves of any of the three, but two hits being recorded in the entire course of the game.

Shaugnessy continued to hit the ball at a good goal. Score:
